

IELTS Teacher Training workshop

Friday 24th March 2017

What is IELTS?

The international English language testing system (IELTS) is the world's most popular English language proficiency test for higher education and global migration, with over 2 million tests taken in the last year.

Why should my students take IELTS?

The IELTS test is developed by some of the world's leading experts in language assessment. It has an excellent international reputation, and is accepted by over 9,000 organisations worldwide, including schools, universities, employers, immigration authorities and professional bodies.

What is the IELTS Teacher Training workshop?

Our free IELTS teacher training workshops are aimed at teachers who are preparing students for the Academic module of the IELTS test. The workshops are delivered by one of our own specialist IELTS teacher trainers and can be adapted to meet the needs of both native and non-native English teachers. The workshops provide participants with a brief overview of the IELTS test including the test format and a guide to test results. This is followed by an analysis of the main features of the Writing and Speaking parts, focussing on those aspects which students may find more difficult.

Why should I take part in this workshop?

"Rarely is teacher training so relevant and practical as this. It was without a doubt the most effective training I have done in the last few years. Every minute of the training was effectively used to introduce us to the exam and to maximise our students' results." Graham Crewe, English Teacher, HAK1 Salzburg.

"The IELTS training workshop with Louisa Dunne was a very well invested day and was the perfect opportunity to get to grips with the ins and outs of the IELTS exam... At the end of the day we all went home feeling much more knowledgeable about what to focus on in IELTS preparation classes. I can highly recommend a workshop with Louisa." Catherine Prewett-Schrempf, Head of Competence Center for Business English, FHWien der WKW.

"To sum up, I have hardly ever experienced a teacher training course that was so well prepared, so efficient and so interesting. It was the optimum use of our time, and in me it generated not just interest and understanding, but - to some degree - even enthusiasm for a format that I had not known before. And that is what makes us good teachers." Fritz Tiefenbrunner, Administrator, Theresianische Akademie.
